WHAT AM I MARKED ON?

40 Items, one mark for each correct answer

Care should be taken when writing answers on the answer sheet as poor spelling and grammar are penalised

You don't lose marks for a wrong answer

LISTENING TEST CONTENT & PREP

The IELTS Listening test is designed to assess a wide range of listening skills, including how well you

- understand main ideas and specific factual information
- recognise the opinions, attitudes and purpose of a speaker
- follow the development of an argument

30 minutes, and you are allowed an extra 10 minutes to transfer your answers from your question booklet to your answer sheet, when taking the test on paper.

40 questions

What kind of tasks to expect ?

A variety of question types are used, chosen from the following: multiple choice, matching, plan/map/diagram labelling, form/note/table/flow-chart/summary completion, sentence completion.

LISTENING TEST CONTENT & PREP

In the test room

Before listening

After the audio introduction, you will have 30 seconds to read the task. Use this time to read the instructions, and make sure you know what to do. Look at the situation (e.g. a library) and predict the vocabulary you will hear (loan period, library catalogue, digital resources). For each question, predict the type of word you are listening for. Is it a number, a place, a noun, a verb or an adjective?

As you listen

Note down key words, but don't try to write everything you hear. You won't be able to, and you will miss important information. Listen for signpost words and phrases such as firstly..., now I want to talk about... to help you structure the information in your mind. Be aware of synonyms: if you hear a game of football, the answer could be football match.

After listening

Remember that you have 10 minutes to transfer your answers to the answer sheet.

- ✔ Make sure you don't write more than the maximum number of words allowed. E.g. the question might ask you to WRITE NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS.
- ✔ Check your spelling and grammar. Make sure you write the plural forms of nouns when needed.
- ✔ If in doubt, guess. You do not lose marks for a wrong answer, so there is nothing to be gained from leaving an answer blank.

Board Games: How it all Began

The first documented board game in America, A Traveler's Tour Through the United States, appeared in 1822. Demand for this new form of pastime was limited, and it wasn't until W. & S.B. Ives successfully marketed The Mansion of Happiness in 1843 that production began to pick up. The McLoughlin Brothers, one of the most successful board game producers of the 19th century, started its business in 1858.

Strict Victorian morals guided early board game producers. The games were viewed as educational tools, intended to teach children lessons in history, geography, and good moral conduct. Dice were frowned upon, owing to an early Puritan belief that the tiny cubes were "instruments of the Devil". As the century drew to a close, the rules governing board game design eased and inventors were free to create games that were more entertaining and less moralistic, including examples based on baseball, yachting, and horse-racing.

As the middle-class continued to expand, the desire for new leisure activities spurred the board game industry. W. & S.B. Ives, though it had been one of the first American companies to manufacture games, soon faded from the scene. In its place, four firms rose to dominance: the McLoughlin Bros., known for bright-colored, lithographed boxes and game boards; Milton Bradley, the first firm to manufacture compact game boards for Civil War soldiers; Parker Brothers, started in 1888 after George Parker bought the rights to the W. & S.B. Ives company's games; and Selchow and Righter, the firm that obtained the U.S. rights to
